VOLUNTEER ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AND AGREEMENT
Use of Social Security Number

I give The Center for Volunteer Caregiving permission to investigate my police, court, and driving background. The disclosure will not result in an automatic disqualification from volunteer service, but will be considered in relation to the work I will be doing.

I understand

- that my Social Security Number is required to complete my background check;
- that my Social Security Number will not be included on my background report; and
- that my Social Security Number will be eliminated from my file with The Center for Volunteer Caregiving once my background report has been reviewed.

The Center for Volunteer Caregiving uses First Advantage to process background checks. Privacy issues are key in the employment screening industry as regulatory bodies issue rulings and legislation designed to protect consumers' rights. Be advised that First Advantage and all employment-screening companies must adhere to these regulations, including the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), the EEOC, and the Drivers Privacy Protection Act, among others. - See more at: <http://www.fadv.com/Why-First-Advantage/Compliance.aspx#sthash.monm57fR.dpuf>
